This preliminary quotation is tentative. We will require a detailed outline of the customer's buying patterns, delivery requirements, delivery frequency, packaging requirements, etc. With a detailed outline of the customer's requirements and desires, we can focus on the steps necessary to satisfy and the customer's supply chain planning and economics. The more information we have from the customer, the more precise we can be with a formal quotation.

Thank you for the opportunity to offer this preliminary and tentative quotation.
